LAST SOLDIER MARKER PROGRAM FOR JAMES MONROE CARLOCK

On Saturday, April 27, 2024, members of Phelps Camp and about 25 members of the public gathered at the Rice Cemetery outside Dadeville, Missouri, to dedicate a Last Soldier marker in honor of James Monroe Carlock, a member of the 15th Missouri Cavalry and Dade County's last Union (and Civil War) veteran. Our thanks to Dade County historian Ken Elkins for working with the cemetery caretaker and Dade County Genealogical Society to arrange the ceremony and for making remarks.
